

February 10, 2019 Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Message

“Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?’ ‘Here I am,’ I said, ‘send me!’” (Isaiah 6:8) Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, “Whom shall I send?” Whether it is someone to take on a new ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or to say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. The next time you hear God calling, have the courage to walk through the door and say “Here I am, Lord.”

Every day-Every way Stewards

That we may eagerly respond, “Here I am, Lord,” whenever we hear God call upon us to be His hands, feet and voice here on earth.

Meditation

Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch."
from the message of St. Pope John Paul II for the 42nd World Day of Prayer for Vocations - April 17, 2005

" 'Duc in altum' [Put out into the deep.] The command of Christ is particularly relevant in our time, when there is a widespread mentality which, in the face of difficulties, favors personal non-commitment. The first condition for "putting out into the deep" is to cultivate a deep spirit of prayer nourished by daily listening to the Word of God. The authenticity of the Christian life is measured by the depth of one's prayer... In prayer, a conversation with Christ develops and it makes us His intimate friends...

...Prayer also makes us aware that He is also present in moments of apparent failure, when tireless efforts seem useless, as happened to the Apostles themselves. After toiling all night, they exclaimed: "Master, we took nothing!" (Luke 5:5). It is especially in these moments that one needs to open one's heart to abundant grace and to allow the word of the Redeemer to act with all its power: 'Duc in altum!'

Whoever opens his heart to Christ will not only understand the mystery of his own existence, but also that of his own vocation; he will bear the abundant fruit of grace. The first fruit will be his growth in holiness in the course of a spiritual journey which begins with the gift of Baptism and continues even to the fullness of perfect love... the Christian becomes always increasingly capable of loving in the way that Christ loved... He will commit himself to persevering in unity with his brothers... to proclaim and bear witness to the wonderful truth of the saving love of God.

...I renew the invitation of Christ to 'put out into the deep'... Trust Christ... fix your eyes on his face, persevere in Listening to His Word. Allow Him to focus your search and your aspirations, all your ideals and the desires of your heart... Jesus, Son of God... give to Your Church the gift of young people who are ready to put out into the deep, to be the sign among their brothers of Your presence which renews and saves."
