Stewardship Message

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." (Joshua 5:12) Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

Every day-Every way Stewards

That we are generous with all of our gifts and nurture and develop them to return with increase.

"Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt."

-Pope Francis

Meditation

“Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you...”

Those who receive God’s gift of mercy often desire in their gratitude to pass it on to others. Abby Johnson is one such person. Once the manager of the Planned Parenthood abortion clinic in Bryan, Texas, Abby turned away from a lucrative job and has become a pro-life advocate, dedicated to helping workers leave the abortion industry.

Abby’s story is told in the movie Unplanned, now playing in theaters locally and nationwide. In 2009, while working at Planned Parenthood, Abby was asked to assist with an ultrasound abortion of a 13-week preborn baby. After seeing the baby fight for his life, she knew she could not continue in the abortion industry.

Abby said, “I had seen two things that I knew to be true—that there was humanity in the womb and that abortion was taking an individual human being’s life.”

Abby was afraid and unsure where to turn. Providentially, the clinic where she worked was the site of the original 40 Days for Life prayer vigil. Their office was nearby. She walked away from her job and into the Coalition for Life office, seeking the help of the people who had shown her God’s love, despite the fact that they stood on opposite sides of the fence for so long.

As she waited, Abby prayed, “God, I don’t know how to keep going on with this burden.” She added, “I remember... hearing Him gently saying, ‘You know, nothing you will ever do will make up for what you have done.’ That was a hard reality to grasp, but I also heard from Him that because of His Divine Mercy—because of His radical grace and forgiveness—He was ready to say that it’s finished. I had to move forward in that faith.”

After leaving her job, Abby began to speak out about the abortion industry. In 2012 she founded And Then There Were None, which has helped 430 workers and seven abortionists to leave the industry. Her story was told in her book Unplanned, now dramatized in the Unplanned movie. The Divine Mercy that the Lord so generously bestowed on Abby is now being shared with many other prodigal sons and daughters, leading many who were lost back to the Father’s mercy. Celebrate and rejoice!

UNPLANNED - The Movie

Abby Johnson becomes the youngest clinic director in the history of Planned Parenthood, then a life-changing experience turns her into an anti-abortion activist. The movie, directed by Cary Solomon and Chuck Konzelman, features Ashley Bratcher as Abby Johnson. The movie, which was released on March 29th, has an “R” rating; IMAGINE, in some places a 10-year-old girl can get an abortion without her parents being informed, yet such a girl would be unable to view the movie without parental supervision. Join Bob de Lorenzo and others on Tuesday, April 2, at 4:40 pm, to view the movie at the Fairchild Cinema in Pasco.

Invitation

We are getting ready for the presentation of the live stations of the cross on Friday, April 19 at 4:00 pm and would like to invite you to be part of the City of Jerusalem by dressing up.

Father, help me to see this holy season of Lent as a time of spiritual renewal, rather than a time of deprivation. Motivate me to reach a new level of experiencing your grace.
