Stewardship Message

“Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, ‘Do you love me?’ and he said to him, ‘Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my sheep.’” (John 21:17) All of us are challenged to show our love for Jesus and others. Discern how God is calling you to use your time in prayer, your talent in charitable works and your treasure to assist those who are in need. Remember that giving is an act of worship and helps advance the mission of our parish and greater Church.

Every day-Every way Stewards

That we discern how God is calling us to use all of our gifts.

Kyle and Karl Hadley cordially invite you to attend the ordination of their son,
Deacon Kurt Hadley, to the holy priesthood on Friday, May 24, 2019, 7 pm.
at St. Paul Cathedral
(1214 West Chestnut Avenue, Yakima WA)

Kurt is a true Tri-Citizen: born in Richland, life-long member of St. Joseph Parish in Kennewick, and eighth grade graduate of St. Patrick School in Pasco.

Please join us to support him as he responds to God's call to serve His people in the Diocese of Yakima.

PREPARES volunteers spread compassion throughout our diocese. They are the hands of Christ and words cannot express how much we appreciate them! Through their work, they dedicate every day to creating the kind of community they want to live in. We couldn't do our work without the help of our 100 volunteers. PREPARES is a powerful, life-affirming ministry aimed at helping families with children under the age of 5. We also thank parishioners who regularly donate to the struggling families we serve.

Women of St. Joseph News

Mark your calendar!! WSJ general business meeting, Thursday, May 23 at 7:00 pm in Holy Grounds Café. For more information call Kim Sheldon at 460-1368 or Theresa Thomas at 366-5631.

Meditation

From "Origins of the Papacy" by Dr. Marcellino D'Ambrosio

The origins of the papacy can be found in the dialogue between Jesus and Simon Peter... The question "Peter, do you love Me?" is followed by the command "Feed my sheep." The pope, shepherd and successor of Peter, has a role that has to do not with privilege but with sacrifice.

... it was only to Peter that Jesus put the question "Do you love me?" But why did Jesus ask him the same question three times? Perhaps Peter needed to atone for his three-fold denial of Christ by a three-fold profession of love. Perhaps... the Lord really wanted to be sure He got his point across... "Peter, your way of expressing penance for your sin and love for Me will be to feed My sheep. Remember, they are not your sheep, but Mine. Take care of them for Me. Do for them what I did for them... Protect them. Lay down your life for them if necessary."

Peter's role as a shepherd is, in a way, unique because it is universal. Despite his human frailty... he is called to be the shepherd of all the shepherds. That's a big responsibility... which he and his successors could never fulfill by human power alone.

The Pope... needs the grace of the Holy Spirit to fulfill his role. The bit about Peter stretching out his hands so that others could lead him where he does not want to go – this does not just refer to his crucifixion... but to the daily laying down of his life for his flock...

In another way... all of us... are called to become ourselves shepherds... bishops... priests and deacons... teachers... and parents, shepherds of ... "the domestic church."

... the call to feed and care for the sheep is a call to sacrifice, not privilege. It has its moments of exaltation and profound satisfaction, and it has its moments of agony as well. Yet if we've learned anything from the Passion, it's that suffering is the true and necessary test of love, as well as love's most authentic and powerful expression.

So let us not be afraid to be shepherds. The Good Shepherd will empower us with His Spirit. And let's pray with gratitude and compassion for those who shepherd us.

St Vincent de Paul

The St. Vincent de Paul Conference of St. Joseph's Parish serves those in need within our parish boundaries. We have 5 active 2-person teams, but we need more help, especially volunteers who are bi-lingual. If you are looking for ways to experience God by serving His people, please call Tom Curran at 509-619-0358. If a parishioner needs help or knows of someone who does, SVdP now has a message line 509 591-0149.
