Stewardship Message

"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end." (Revelations 22:13) This is a reminder of how we should live our lives 24 hours a day, 7 days a week – putting God first in all that we do, not only when we are at Mass and parish activities, but when we are in the world, at work or at school. Living gratefully and generously is a lifestyle; it should influence how we make all our daily decisions.

Every day-Every way Stewards

That with every decision I make, I take one step closer to God.

Eucharistic Adoration:

Jesus is waiting. Could you please help with Adoration during the times listed below?

Tuesday: 3am; Friday: 7am; Saturday: 12 midnight

Underlined hours= no adorers

Call Carol, 582-5011, to volunteer for an hour, or hable a Leticia Martinez, 396-4033 si desea ayudar con una hora.

Jesus is so easy to please. Spending an hour in His Presence not only pleases Him, but it also consoles His most mournful Heart and makes reparation.

The Adoration Chapel is open to all 24/7. Please visit Our Lord any time you would like.

Cursillo

The Ultreya will be held June 3 at Christ the King in Richland starting at 7:30 pm with a rosary preceding at 6:30 pm. We will discuss the possibility of postponing the July and August Ultreyas or maybe combining them in a sort of grand Ultreya with a potluck supper. Also, it looks like Ultreyas may be starting again in the East Wenatchee area according to news from there. Let's keep these brothers and sisters in our prayers.

Meditation

Veni Creator Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit, Creator blest, and in our souls take up Thy rest; come with Thy grace and heavenly aid to fill the hearts which Thou hast made.

When Jesus ascended into heaven 40 days after the Resurrection, He instructed His Apostles to remain Jerusalem, where they were to wait for the promise of the Father to be fulfilled that they would be "clothed with power from on high."

Fearful and not fully understanding this promise, the Apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem to wait and pray. For nine days they prayed, and on the tenth day, the Feast of Pentecost, they received the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

The nine days the Apostles spent in prayer prepared them to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, good counsel, courage, reverence for God, and the holy fear of His awesome power. These gifts and their fruits - charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control, and goodness – flowed out beyond measure to the Apostles, enabling them to cast off fear and go out to spread the Good News. And the Church was born. These nine days of prayer before Pentecost became the first and oldest Novena.

In his 1897 Encyclical on the Holy Spirit, Pope Leo XIII commanded that this novena should take place before Pentecost throughout the whole Catholic Church and he granted indulgences to those who pray it. It is still the only novena that the Church officially recommends to all the faithful.

There are many other novena prayers, but the idea of nine days of prayer comes from this first Novena. Many such prayers are powerful and bring graces and blessings to those who pray them faithfully and submit the outcome to God's holy will. But the one thing that Jesus promised would come to those who asked, unflinching, is the Holy Spirit. When we ask for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, we are truly asking God to make His home in our hearts. And God, Who knows how to give good gifts to His children, will hear and answer us. He will come to us and dwell in us, filling us with the light and love of His Holy Spirit.

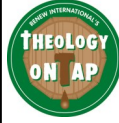

Engaged Encounter

Couples preparing for marriage in the Catholic Church are welcome to attend the next Engaged Encounter of Central Washington retreat June 21-23 at the Lazy F Camp in Ellensburg. Assisted by presentations from two married couples and a priest, participants will have plenty of time alone to dialogue honestly and intensively about their prospective lives together – including their strengths and weaknesses, desires, ambitions, goals, their attitudes about money, sex, children, family, and their role in the church and society. To register, or for more information, call Paul and Pegi Ackerman at 509-575-4931 or e-mail them at napa11gk@q.com.

Whitlow Golf Tournament

Join us for the 24th Ray Whitlow Annual Golf Tournament on Friday, June 21. Show your support of Ray's efforts 24 years ago to establish a fundraiser to benefit the students at Tri-Cities Prep. The tournament will take place at the Zintel Creek Golf Course. For more information and to download a registration form, please visit tccprep.org or call 546-2465.

Faith Formation Director Position –

The Diocese of Yakima is seeking an Evangelization and Faith Formation Director. The goal is to develop Hispanic Catholic parishioners as leaders and be a liaison to share the work of PREPARES en español across the Yakima and Spokane Dioceses. This formation director will reside in the Yakima Diocesan Office under the direction of Msgr. Robert Siler, Chancellor. In this position, life and justice issues will be brought together, anchored in the works of mercy, with a natural faith formation structure that engages Catholic parishes and schools. The Evangelization and Faith Formation Director will build on Hispanic ministries already embedded in parishes and migrant ministries in Central and Eastern Washington. If you are interested in the Evangelization and Faith Formation Director position, please contact Msgr. Robert Siler at 509-965-7117 or robert.siler@yakimadiocese.net. For a complete job description and for instructions on how to apply, please visit the link to Applitrack: <http://www.applitrack.com/yakimadiocese/onlineapp> Position is open until filled.

Quo Vadis Camp

The time for our annual QUO VADIS DAYS camp approaches and we need your help promoting the event and getting the applications and consent forms out. Quo Vadis Days camp offers young men ages 14-18 the opportunity to discern a possible call to the priesthood. Quo Vadis Days will be held July 29 – 31 at Camp Koinonia in Cle Elum. Bus transportation will be available across the Diocese. Please contact Daniel Sanchez for more information. The cost of the camp is $ 50.00. The family rate is $25.00 for each additional brother.
