Stewardship Message

“But when He comes, the Spirit of truth, He will guide you to all truth...” (John 16:13) Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help us know and live the truth. To prepare ourselves, we need to open our hearts to receive this gift before we can give it. Develop a daily prayer routine. Talk and listen to the Holy Spirit. This is best done in silence when we can hear His response.

Every day-Every way Stewards

That we take time in silence, every day, to hear how God is calling us.

Priest Retirement and Seminarian Education Collection 2019

The upcoming Special Collection for Priest Retirement and Seminarian Education is scheduled June 15 and 16.

Currently projected financial funding for our senior priests for the next ten years is underfunded by $1,100,000. For our seminarians, the "financial picture" is even more challenging. Currently projected financial funding for the next ten years is underfunded by $7,200,000, leaving the future funding for formation of men for priesthood a grave concern here in the Diocese of Yakima. These are difficult financial times for families and individuals, but please use the special envelopes provided on the pews and foyer, and be as generous as your means allow. God has indeed blessed His local Church with generous hearts!

Quo Vadis Days – 2019

What is the Father's will for me?

How can I know what God wants?

Quo Vadis Days is a camp experience sponsored by the Diocese of Yakima Vocations Office to provide a time of fun, prayer, and talks to help you explore the Lord's call in your life.

When: Monday, July 29 at 12:00 noon to Wednesday July 31.

Where: Camp Kiononia, Cle Elum, WA

After you register, someone will contact you with information about pick-up and drop off.

Meditation

"The Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth."

The Christian belief in the Trinity sets us apart and defines the way we understand our purpose and our destiny as children of God. We are invited to eternal union with our God in the Eucharist, the Word, the Church, and in our hearts and souls, if only we accept the mystery and gift that is offered to us.

From the beginning, God loved mankind, taking "delight in the human race," and invited us to enter into a beautiful and unique family relationship with Him. When the first man and woman turned away from His loving guidance, God the Father provided a way to heal that broken relationship: becoming man and redeeming His beloved children. Through Jesus Christ the Son, the way was opened for us to re-enter the family of God. Through the Holy Spirit, God's presence enters our hearts and restores us to life. By His love, God creates us, redeems us, animates us, and guides us to all truth.

We may wonder with the psalmist, "What is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him? You have made him little less than the angels, and crowned him with glory and honor." God's gracious love for us is unearned, His gift of redemption is undeserved, yet both are freely given to all who turn to Him in trust. He not only offers us this priceless gift, but loves us enough to humbly stand at the door of our hearts, knocking and waiting for us to allow Him in.

Sadly, many people reject God's gift of salvation. What of us, who are invited to become one with Him as members of His Body, to unite with Him eternally as His Bride, and to join in union with God in the Holy Catholic Church? Do we love Him enough to accept His invitation to enter into the family of God? Don't hesitate to throw open the door to welcome this loving Father, this beloved Son and Redeemer, and the sweet refreshment of the Holy Spirit, offering Him all your love and gratitude in return for His gracious and merciful gifts.

Faith and reason are like two wings on which the human spirit rises to the contemplation of truth. St. John Paul II
