

Stewardship Message

"For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 5:20) The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law, and they used this to elevate themselves above other people. Jesus is clear – it's the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner in the parking lot is an example of being a modern-day Pharisee.

Every day-Every way Stewards

That our faith grows, and we generously share out of love and not out of obligation.

The Black and Indian Mission Collection

BLACK AND INDIAN
MISSION OFFICE EST. 1884

Today, our parish has special collection envelopes that will take up the 137th annual National Black and Indian Mission Collection. Our support of this collection helps build the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities from coast to coast, including our diocese, which received $4,000 from the Black and Indian Mission Collection last year. Schools, parish religious education programs, and diocesan ministries depend on your generosity to help them spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ! You can help meet unmet needs with a generous contribution today. Thank you for your support. For more information log on to www.blackandindianmission.org/nationalcollection

Meditation

"... if you trust in God, you too shall live; He has set before you fire and water. To whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil. Whichever he chooses shall be given him." Sirach 15:15-16

The readings today couldn't be any clearer on the importance of following God's commandments. The Old Testament reading reminds us that we are given the choice between good and evil; life and death. It is up to us to reject sin and evil and choose life. The psalmist sings his gratitude for the great graces and blessings given to those who follow God's laws. St. Paul speaks of the wisdom of God, which will bring blessings beyond human comprehension to those who love God. Finally, in the Gospel, Jesus tells us to go beyond just following the letter of the law and warns of the consequences of refusing or failing to do so, even in our hearts. Sin does more damage to the human soul than the loss of physical abilities. Whatever causes us to sin must be cut off because there are eternal consequences.

The Lord's warnings may sound harsh until we recall that He also has given us the path to eternal life and the grace of Redemption by His death and resurrection. Jesus provides all we need to overcome our human weaknesses and offers us infinite mercy when we fail. All we have to do is turn to Him and ask for forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This sacrament washes away all sin, strengthens us to resist temptation, and awakens in us the desire to be more faithful to God's holy will.

So we have an invitation and a choice. Which of us, if we truly understood what we are being offered, would reject the beautiful, life-giving, commandments of God? God is calling us to open our hearts to His mysterious, hidden wisdom, to reject the "wisdom of this age," so that someday we will see the beauty and the glory of "what God has prepared for those who love Him."

St. Vincent Center is in need of men's clothing, household items, and blankets. Donated items are distributed free of charge to families dealing with emergencies. Donations may be dropped off at the store, 731 N. Columbia Center Blvd., Suite #114. St. Vincent Center is a program of Catholic Charities Serving Central Washington.
