Stewardship Message

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” Luke 10:37

This was Jesus’s command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone who looks different from you or someone who has different beliefs than yours or someone whom you don’t like, all without expecting anything in return.

Collection for July 3, 2022

The thought of the presence of God and the spirit of worship will, in all my actions, have as their immediate object Jesus, God and man, really present in the most Holy Eucharist. The spirit of sacrifice, of humiliation, of scorn for self in the eyes of men will be illuminated, supported and strengthened by the constant thought of Jesus, humiliated and despised in the Blessed Sacrament (Pope John XXIII)

A NOTE FROM

SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES "What must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Faithfulness to one's vocation is essential to holiness. Is yours to be a priest, deacon, sister or brother?

SURVIVING DIVORCE: Come join others who have experienced separation and divorce. In this video series, Rose Sweet—Catholic author, speaker, and pastoral counselor—tackles the pain and suffering of divorce from her own experience and that of the Catholic Church. She is joined by a group of distinguished priests and professionals who have dedicated their lives to helping people understand and cope with loss and grief. They will guide you through the shock, anger, denial, and emotional upheaval of separation and divorce. New sessions are starting at Christ the King Church on Monday, September 12, 2022, from 6:30PM – 8:30PM in the lower level of the Youth Center, Room C (1080 Long St, Richland). With questions or to sign up contact Meggin Sanner, 541-571-8402, or ckadultre@gmail.com or Elizabeth at 509-420-4509.

Who are the Discalced Carmelite Seculars and what do we do? We are lay men and women (married, single, with and without kids) who undergo a five year period of formation and then make public promises to belong to the Discalced Carmelite Order (think St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Edith Stein, and more). In addition to daily mental prayer, Liturgy of the Hours, Mass (all as we are able within family life), we also commit to a monthly formation meeting, an annual silent retreat, and we fast on the eves of Carmelite solemnities. More than just a prayer group with big scapulars, this group is a commitment of life within a supportive community, all seeking Christ with passion and fidelity. If you're ready to take your spiritual life to the next level or simply curious, join us for the Discalced Carmelite Seculars Open House on Saturday, July 16 (Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel), for the 8:30 AM Mass in the Small Church and informational brunch to follow in the Parish Annex.

SUNDAY LITURGY REFLECTION

BY FR. RICCARDO KEOLKER

Father Riccardo Keolker's Sunday Liturgy Reflection will not be available until July 13.

Traveling Vocations Crucifixes

St Joseph's has two Traveling Vocations Crucifixes—one at the 9:00 AM Mass and one at the 1:00 PM Mass. Sign up to take a crucifix (box includes the crucifix, rosary, and prayer cards) home for one week and pray for vocations—all vocations, but especially vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Vowed Religious Life. We pray that more young men and women will hear God's call and say yes. Remember, without priests, we would not have the Eucharist or other sacraments!!
