BAPTISMS

“As a rule an adult is to be baptized in his or her parish and an infant in the parish of the parents unless a just cause suggests otherwise.” (Canon Law 587 and 2) If you are a parishioner who attends St. Joseph and would like to baptize your child in another parish, you will need a letter from the pastor of St. Joseph giving you permission to do so. If you are not a St. Joseph parishioner and want to baptize your child in this parish, you need to get permission from your pastor to baptize your child here. The parents and sponsors must attend a class before the Baptism of the child.

MISSION & CORE VALUES

Our mission and sacred purpose as the parish of St. Joseph is to fully live our Catholic faith, which is rooted in Jesus Christ and the teachings of His Church, to nurture and build our parish so that every parishioner can know, love, and serve God in this world and encourage others to do the same.

Our core values include:

Hope—rooting our ministries and actions in prayer; joyfully carrying them out with competence, care and confidence in God's promise of salvation.

Liturgy—maintaining the highest of ministry standards to bring glory to God through the rites, ceremonies, prayers, and sacraments of the Church.

Community—caring about and addressing the needs of others.

Evangelism—telling others the good news about Jesus.

Giving—practicing stewardship as a way of life by sharing of our time, talents, and treasure to support the mission and ministries.

INQUIRING ADULTS-OCIA

Order of Christian Initiation Of Adults

OCIA is for all adults older than 18 years of age in need of the sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, and/or Confirmation. We welcome your interest in exploring the Catholic faith and invite your participation in our year-round OCIA process. Call the Parish Office for more information.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Sacrament of the Anointing is the proper Sacrament for those Christians whose health is seriously impaired by sickness, before surgeries, or anyone over the age of 59. Through the Sacrament of Anointing, the Church supports the sick in their struggle against illness and continues Christ's messianic work of healing. If you need the Sacrament of Anointing, please call the Parish Office.

MARRIAGE

Please contact the priest of the parish where you want to celebrate your wedding ceremony to discuss your situation and set the date in the parish calendar. Do this at least six months prior to the day you are planning to marry.

FUNERALS

Death is something that awaits all of us and our loved ones. Yet we often avoid thinking about it. Please let the Parish Office know how we can help with the farewell to your beloved family member.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

April 21, 2024

Fourth Sunday of Easter

"I am the Good Shepherd...and I lay down My life for the sheep...and they will heed My voice."

- John 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Jesus what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time, every day, in silence to actively listen for His voice.

"This Voice, which does not speak in words but in silence and in peace, is the Voice of contemplation. Prayer comes afterwards, when God makes His presence felt in the soul. In this way, no matter who or what we are, we should all be contemplatives. In other words, we should seek, in quiet conversation with God, the truth and tranquility which the world cannot give us." (Meditations with Antonio Cardinal Bacci - 1881-1971)

Welcome to our Parish Community!

If you are new to St. Joseph, we welcome you – whether you have come here from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish. You have helped us celebrate the liturgy in a beautiful way. If you would like to become part of our Catholic community, please fill out a registration form available on our website. Welcome!

Doris Rosenow - Religious Education Coordinator

Wednesday Classes meet: 6:00-7:15pm

(Classes are in English)

WILL YOU HELP?

The Religious Education program relies on many volunteers who answer God's call to assist in the faith formation of Catholic children and youth. Committed volunteers who dedicate themselves to passing along our faith and love of Jesus Christ is necessary for a successful program. Without volunteers there is no program for the many children/youth of the parish. It truly is a rewarding experience to meet with children/youth each week as they learn about the gifts our Lord, Jesus Christ gives to us. You do not need to have a degree in theology, or a degree in religious studies, nor even a teaching degree. It is perfectly alright to answer a student's question with "I'll find out the answer to your question and get back to you next week" if you need assistance with a correct answer. The requirement is to love our Catholic faith, have a love for children/youth and a desire to pass along the teachings of the Church, its traditions and share the life and love of Jesus with the students in the class. In advance, "THANK YOU" for your "YES."

Pope John Paul II stated...

"To the whole Church is addressed Christ's command: 'Go out to the whole world; proclaim the Good News to all creation' (Mk 16:15). The whole Church, therefore, is missionary and evangelizing; she lives constantly in a state of mission. To be Christians means to be missionaries, to be apostles. It is not enough to discover Christ - you must bring Him to others!"

¿AYUDARAS?

El programa de Educación Religiosa depende de muchos voluntarios que responden al llamado de Dios para ayudar en la formación en la fe de los niños y jóvenes católicos. Voluntarios comprometidos que se dedican a transmitir nuestra fe y el amor de Jesucristo son necesarios para un programa exitoso. Sin voluntarios no hay programa para los muchos niños/jóvenes de la parroquia. Es verdaderamente una experiencia gratificante reunirse con niños/jóvenes cada semana mientras aprenden acerca de los dones que nuestro Señor Jesucristo nos da. No es necesario tener un título en teología, o un título en estudios religiosos, ni siquiera un título en enseñanza. Está perfectamente bien responder a la pregunta de un estudiante con "Averiguaré la respuesta a su pregunta y me pondré en contacto con usted la próxima semana" si necesita ayuda con una respuesta correcta. El requisito es amar nuestra fe católica, tener amor por los niños/jóvenes y el deseo de transmitir las enseñanzas de la Iglesia, sus tradiciones y compartir la vida y el amor de Jesús con los estudiantes de la clase. De antemano, "GRACIAS" por su "SÍ".

El Papa Juan Pablo II declaró...

"A toda la Iglesia se dirige el mandato de Cristo: 'Id por todo el mundo; proclamad la Buena Nueva a toda la creación' (Mc 16,15). Toda la Iglesia, por tanto, es misionera y evangelizadora; vive constantemente en estado de misión. Ser cristianos significa ser misioneros, ser apóstoles. ¡No basta con descubrir a Cristo, hay que llevarlo a los demás!".

“I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD WHO LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE FOR THE SHEEP.” ~JOHN 10:11

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS TO FOCUS ON VOCATIONS

In just three months, tens of thousands of Catholics will gather in Indianapolis for the nation’s first Eucharistic Congress in more than eight decades. While the main focus is clear—to adore Jesus truly present in the Blessed Sacrament—participants will also notice a heavy emphasis on vocations.

Religious communities from across the country will be attending, many underwritten by Serra International, which is organizing a large area in the convention hall that will be teeming with sisters and brothers. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring an entire section to showcase diocesan priesthood, with a small army of priests on hand to talk with young men.

Also in attendance will be hundreds of seminarians, many of whom will have just completed the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, an ambitious project that will see thousands marching toward Indiana along different routes totalling 6,500 miles.

The connection between the Eucharist and vocations is clear: Three-quarters of recently ordained priests regularly participated in Eucharistic Adoration before entering seminary. And at Catholic youth events, even those offering sports and high-energy activities, teen participants still rank one “activity” as their favorite: Adoration.

As the Church prepares for this historic event, let’s ask our Eucharistic Lord for an outpouring of vocations!

Archdiocese of Oklahoma City

Above: Last year, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City led more than a thousand faithful Catholics in a two-mile Eucharistic Procession—one of the longest in the country.

Masthead photo: Fr. Peter Mangum of the Diocese of Shreveport celebrates atop a climbing wall during a vocations summer camp. Beside him is Fr. Kelby Tingle, who attended the diocese’s “Mission Possible” camp as a teen and is about to celebrate a much bigger achievement—his first year of priesthood.

IDEAS FOR ACTION

HOLY FATHER: DO THESE FOUR THINGS

In a papal message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis used the term “con-vocation” to explain that a vocation is not an isolated “me-and-God” experience. Instead, young people hear God’s call within a real Church community. He offered four concrete ways to help youth discover their vocations, emphasizing these things should be done together:

1. Co-teach with a catechist
2. Visit a convent or monastery
3. Assist missionaries
4. Spend time with parish priests

Note that none of these involve phones or social media. How can you organize real-life activities for youth in your parish?

SERRA CELEBRATES 100 MONTHS THE GLOBAL ROSARY FOR VOCATIONS

For 100 months, Catholics from around the world have joined a massive video/phone call during which they pray the rosary to intercede for vocations. Created by Tim O’Neill in 2015, the Global Rosary brings together Serra Clubs comprised of lay people dedicated to promoting priesthood and consecrated life. “In its simplicity it becomes quite a feat,” said Tim. “It gives a chance for people worldwide to visit beforehand and after... The most powerful way we Serrans connect is through prayer.”

THE VOCATION OF MARRIAGE SOLVING DATING DILEMMAS

The stats on Catholic marriages are alarming: for every ten weddings in 1970, today there are only two. Percentage-wise, that’s a steeper decline than priestly ordinations.

For young Catholics looking for love, the Catholic dating scene is not just frustrating, it’s downright discouraging. That was certainly the experience of Rachel Hoover Canto, whose new book on dating, Pretty Good Catholic, offers counter-cultural advice for how to date well, stay chaste, and find a good Catholic spouse.

After Rachel graduated from college, she watched her friends get married while she suffered through some tough breakups. That got her thinking deeply about the whole Catholic dating situation, which has its own set of quirks and challenges. Trying to be proactive, she started a Catholic singles group, interviewed people from CatholicMatch, and consulted dating experts. The result is Pretty Good Catholic, which serves as a how-to guide for even the most discouraged single man or woman.

Cristina Pineda, an LA-based celebrity matchmaker who also happens to be a faithful Catholic, offered high praise: “I wish I had this book when I was single,” she said,

STORYBOOK ENDING

While writing Pretty Good Catholic, Rachel Canto took her own advice and found the love of her life. She and her new husband live in Nashville.

One Hail Mary

Sometimes it’s the simple things! A traditional practice that’s making a comeback is helping kids pray for their future vocations by saying one Hail Mary each night: “Mother Mary, as you said yes to the angel Gabriel, help me say yes to God’s call. Hail Mary, full of grace...”

A NOTE FROM SERRA CLUB OF TRI CITIES

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Please pray for more people to listen and respond "Yes, Lord," to God's calls to be priests, permanent deacons, brothers, or sisters.

Traveling Vocations Crucifixes

Courtesy of Serra Club of the Tri Cities, St. Joseph Parish has two Traveling Vocations Crucifixes—one at the 9:00 am Mass and one at the 1:00 pm Mass. Sign up to take a Crucifix (box includes the Crucifix, Rosary, and prayer cards) home for one week and pray for vocations—all vocations, but especially vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Vowed Religious Life. We pray that more men and women will hear God's call and say yes. Remember, without priests, we would not have access to the Holy Eucharist and other Sacraments.
