ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Sacrament of the Anointing is the proper Sacrament for those Christians whose health is seriously impaired by sickness, before surgeries, or anyone over the age of 59. Through the Sacrament of Anointing, the Church supports the sick in their struggle against illness and continues Christ's messianic work of healing. If you need the Sacrament of Anointing, please call the Parish Office.

MARRIAGE

Please contact the priest of the parish where you want to celebrate your wedding ceremony to discuss your situation and set the date in the parish calendar. Do this at least six months prior to the day you are planning to marry.

FUNERALS

Death is something that awaits all of us and our loved ones. Yet we often avoid thinking about it. Please let the Parish Office know how we can help with the farewell to your beloved family member.

MISSION & CORE VALUES

Our mission and sacred purpose as the parish of St. Joseph is to fully live our Catholic faith, which is rooted in Jesus Christ and the teachings of His Church, to nurture and build our parish so that every parishioner can know, love, and serve God in this world and encourage others to do the same.

Our core values include:

Hope—rooting our ministries and actions in prayer; joyfully carrying them out with competence, care and confidence in God's promise of salvation.

Liturgy—maintaining the highest of ministry standards to bring glory to God through the rites, ceremonies, prayers, and sacraments of the Church.

Community—caring about and addressing the needs of others.

Evangelism—telling others the good news about Jesus.

Giving—practicing stewardship as a way of life by sharing of our time, talents, and treasure to support the mission and ministries.

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

"Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells within you?" 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16
Simply remembering that we are "temples of the Holy Spirit" would make our daily decision-making relatively easy. If we truly want to imitate Jesus, then our words and actions should reflect the love, mercy, and forgiveness that flow from His Sacred Heart. Try it for one week. Try to remember that we temples of the Holy Spirit and see how it affects the way that you live.

Today, is pledge weekend for the Diocesan Annual Catholic Appeal.

Our parish goal, as always, is 100% participation. Can you imagine the additional good works that could be accomplished with just a 10% increase in donors? To achieve this goal, each of us is asked to prayerfully open our hearts to the needs of our diocese and make a gift as our individual circumstances allow. Simply visit

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I cannot thank you enough for the extraordinary impact we have accomplished together in our ministries and the mission of the Church.

As we prepare to launch the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) Pledge Weekend on November 8 and 9, I want to express my gratitude to you for the many blessings we enjoy in the Diocese of Yakima because of your commitment and financial generosity to the Church in Central Washington.

The Holy Spirit is truly at work through you!

Each year, we have a special opportunity to answer Christ's call uniquely through our Annual Catholic Appeal. On Pledge Weekend, we can renew our personal commitment to participate more fully as good stewards in His mission for the Church. What a blessing!

Through the ACA, we share Christ's message by serving countless people in ways we may not realize. We all enjoy the fruits of the work of the Diocesan ministries and programs funded by the ACA. When we use God's blessing to make our annual pledge to the ACA, we join with all our sisters and brothers in 38 other parish communities throughout the Diocese to do the Lord's work — work that no one individual or parish can do alone.

Our parish goal this year is $ 200,248 and your financial support will assist us in reaching that goal. All funds collected more than this goal will be returned to our parish for use in our ministries and programs.

I support the ACA and encourage you to do so as well. I hope every parish household will make some pledge or gift this year. I urge you to prayerfully consider your financial situation and make the most generous pledge your circumstances will allow. Consider the suggested pledge plan and spread your payments over several months if more convenient.

Thank you for your generosity. Be assured of my prayers for you and your loved ones.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

¡No puedo agradecerle lo suficiente por el extraordinario impacto que hemos logrado juntos en nuestros ministerios y en la misión de la Iglesia!

Mientras nos preparamos para lanzar el Fin de Semana de Compromiso de la Cooperación Diocesana el 8 y 9 de noviembre, quiero expresarle mi gratitud por las bendiciones que disfrutamos en la Diócesis de Yakima debido a su compromiso y generosidad financiera con la Iglesia en Washington Central.

¡El Espíritu Santo está realmente obrando a través de usted!

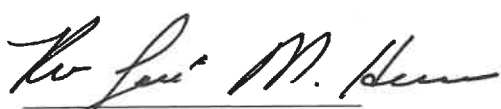

Tenemos una oportunidad especial cada año de responder al llamado de Cristo de una manera única a través de nuestra Cooperación Diocesana. Podemos renovar nuestro compromiso personal el Fin de Semana de Compromiso y participar más plenamente como buenos discípulos en su misión para la Iglesia. ¡Qué bendición!

A través de la Cooperación Diocesana, compartimos el mensaje de Cristo al servir a innumerables personas de formas que tal vez no nos demos cuenta. Todos, de alguna manera, disfrutamos de los frutos del trabajo de los ministerios y programas diocesanos financiados por la Cooperación Diocesana (CD). Cuando utilizamos las bendiciones financieras que Dios nos da y nos comprometemos anualmente con la CD, nos unimos a todas nuestras hermanas y hermanos en otras 38 comunidades parroquiales de la Diócesis para hacer el trabajo del Señor, una labor que ningún individuo o parroquia podría hacerlo solo.

Este año, nuestra meta parroquial es $ 200,248 y su apoyo financiero nos ayudará a alcanzar esa meta. Todos los fondos recaudados en exceso de esta meta serán devueltos a nuestra parroquia para su uso en nuestros propios ministerios y programas.

Yo personalmente apoyo la Campaña Anual de Cooperación Diocesana y los animo a todos ustedes a que hagan lo mismo. Mi esperanza es que todos los hogares en nuestra parroquia hagan su compromiso monetario este año. Si es más conveniente, puede dividir su compromiso y hacer su pago mensualmente. Recuerde que su compromiso es voluntario—es entre usted y Dios. El Obispo y yo, entendemos que suceden situaciones fuera de su control y, puede que cambie su situación financiera. Lo único que necesita hacer es avisar a la Oficina Pastoral del Obispo para que no siga recibiendo los recordatorios mensualmente. Su compromiso a través de su oración es sumamente importante. Le pido que nos recuerde en sus oraciones diarias y pida por el éxito de nuestra campaña.

Muchas gracias por su generosidad. Le ofrezco mis oraciones por usted y por sus seres queridos.

One Minute Meditations

St. Albert the Great

Possibly one of the Church's greatest intellectuals, St. Albert was the eldest son of a powerful German military official. Despite opposition from his family, he joined the Dominican Order. Being well educated, St. Albert desired to make all the learning of the East available to the Latin-speaking West. He earned his doctorate at the University of Paris in 1245 and taught at Paris and Cologne. He is best known as the master of St. Thomas Aquinas.

Praying for the dead

Catholics see Purgatory as an expression of God's mercy — a place where souls who die in His grace, but need further purification, are prepared for Heaven. This month, we pray for our departed loved ones, asking God to bring them quickly into His presence.

One tradition is to request a Mass on the anniversary of a loved one's death. If that soul is already in Heaven, the graces benefit others still in need. In God's mercy, nothing is ever wasted.

"Forgiveness comes...through the soul's desire to be united to me [i.e., to God], the infinite Good, according to the measure of love attained by the recipient's desire and prayer. A person receives as much of my goodness as he gives to me." St. Catherine of Siena, The Dialogue

Christ as King of our hearts

When we proclaim, "Christ is King," we're not making a poetic or symbolic statement. We're declaring a truth that shapes every part of our lives. To live under Christ's rule is to give Him authority over what we believe, how we worship, how we act, and how we spend our time.

What we believe: At the center of our faith is a relationship. Knowing Jesus personally — through the Gospels, through prayer, through the lives of the saints — transforms abstract belief into living faith. When someone asks, "Why are you Catholic?" our answer should come from experience, not just theology.

How we worship: Imagine a king hosting a free, lavish banquet every week for all his subjects. Every Sunday, we're invited to a banquet — not of food, but of grace. To say, "Christ is King" is to obey His words: "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19). The Mass is not just a weekly routine; it's a divine encounter.

How we act: Our actions, especially the small ones, speak volumes. Reverence, patience, honesty, integrity,

"You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth."
John 18:37

and generosity are everyday ways of making Christ visible through us. These aren't just virtues — they're signs of loyalty to our true King.

How we spend our time: Daily prayer proclaims that Christ reigns not only over Sunday, but over our entire lives. Whether prayer feels powerful or dry, it anchors us in Him. No time given to Christ is ever wasted.

To say "Christ is King" is to surrender everything to Him. It's a declaration that He reigns not just in Heaven, but here, now, in us.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why does the Church offer indulgences?

An indulgence is "the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven" (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This "temporal punishment" refers to the purification the soul undergoes before entering Heaven.

The power of indulgences flows from Christ's sacrifice and is applied through the merits of the saints and prayers of the Church. Indulgences are not shortcuts to Heaven or "free passes"; they require repentance and conversion of heart.

To obtain an indulgence, conditions must be met: sacramental Confession, reception of Holy Communion, prayer for the Holy Father's intentions, and performance of the indulgenced act.

“Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also” (Matthew 6:21)

There's a common lesson in driver's education: "Your vehicle goes where your eyes go." Spiritually, the same is true — our lives follow what we focus on. What we treasure most lays claim to our hearts. The challenge is to set our hearts on what truly lasts.

"You cannot serve two masters" (Matthew 6:24). What treasure do you set your heart on? A desire for holiness requires us to examine how we live day to day. Are we cultivating trust in God, or grasping for control? Realignment often begins with small, intentional acts: spending time in prayer instead of mindless scrolling; reading the Gospel before the news; choosing simplicity over indulgence and giving generously to those in need. These are daily decisions that reflect where our heart truly lies.

Trust instead of worrying. Jesus does not condemn wealth, hard work, or responsible planning. Instead, He calls us to live as sons and daughters of God. That means trusting His love, accepting His timing, and offering our lives in service to His Kingdom. Ask yourself: Do I invite God into my decisions, or do I act alone? Am I content to wait on His timing, or do I insist on my own?

When we prioritize the things of God, we invest in a treasure that does not fade — one that shapes who we are now, and endures into eternity.

Matthew 24:37-44, Preparing hearts for Christ's coming

In this Gospel reading, Jesus reminds us that we do not know the day or the hour when He will come for us. "At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." His message is clear: live each day prepared to meet Him.

Next month, we celebrate His first coming at Christmas. But Christ will come again — at our death, and at the end of time. Advent invites us to ask: "What must I do to be ready?"

Begin by striving to remain in a state of grace. If you are aware of having committed mortal sin, seek God's mercy without delay through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Even if you are not conscious of serious sin, aim to go to Confession regularly — every four to six weeks, if possible. Examine your conscience honestly, and choose one or two areas of sin to actively work on.

Attend Sunday Mass faithfully, make more time for prayer, and look for opportunities to serve others with love and humility. These practices not only prepare us to welcome Christ when we finally meet Him face-to-face, but they also draw us closer to Him now.

When Christmas arrives, may you greet the Lord not with fear, but with joy — knowing your heart is open, your hands are ready, and your soul is at peace.

corruption and cared for the poor and sick when a plague struck Milan.

November 23 – Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. God promised his people a king who would be triumphant over their enemies. Jesus is our King, who triumphed over the enemies of sin and death. In Baptism and Confirmation, we are brought under His kingship.

November 30 – 1st Sunday of Advent. During this four-week season, we anticipate the Messiah's birth, remembering the time when He was awaited. During Advent we also look forward to Christ's reign and His coming on the Last Day. We light candles in an Advent wreath each night of the season to signal the coming of the true light of Christ.

Q Do Catholics practice & titling?

A Tithing is the practice of giving ten percent of your income to the Church. In fact, the word itself comes from an Old English word meaning, "one-tenth." It was based on Jewish tradition in the Old Testament and its first recorded practice was Abraham's offering of a tenth of all he had as a "thank offering" to God for his victory in battle (Genesis 14:18-20). It's still practiced by the Mormon Church.

The Catholic Church does not require tithing; there is no "fixed sum" that God requires of us. Catholics are, however, required to support the material needs of the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2043). How much — or little — is between you and God and in light of the needs of your state in life.

Money isn't the only way to support your parish, diocese, or the Church. Giving of your time to volunteer in your parish, donating some of what you don't need to the poor, and even devoting prayers specifically for the needs of your parish priests are all praiseworthy ways to give back.

Feasts & Celebrations

November 2 – All Souls Day. On this day we pray for the dead, especially our loved ones and the souls in Purgatory. Our prayers and sacrifices can help them get to Heaven faster.

November 4 – St. Charles Borromeo (1584). Born into a wealthy family in 1538 in Lombardy, Italy, St. Charles was chosen for the priesthood to follow in the footsteps of his uncle, Giovanni Angelo de Medici, the future Pope Pius IV. After earning doctorates in civil and canon law by the age of 21, Charles was named cardinal and bishop of Milan. He worked to reform his diocese of

Jubilarians Honored at Yakima Priests Convocation

Two of the most senior priests of the Diocese of Yakima, Fathers Seamus Kerr and John O'Shea, both 96, were honored for 65 years of priestly service at a special Mass October 2 during the annual Convocation of Priests. Other jubilarians recognized at the Mass were Father William Vogel, S.J., 50 years; and Fathers Michael Brzezowski and John Vogl, 25 years. Msgr. John Ecker, vicar general of the diocese, presided at the Mass, held at Christ the King Parish in Richland.

In the absence of Bishop Joseph Tyson, who was away caring for an elderly relative, Msgr. Robert Siler, chancellor of the diocese, presented plaques and papal blessings to both Fr. Kerr and Fr. O'Shea. He noted they were ordained on June 19, 1960, the day after he was born. "Every year on my birthday I am reminded of the gift you have been to me and to our diocese," Siler said.

Both priests were ordained at All Hallows Seminary in Dublin by Bishop John Scanlon of Honolulu, for service in the Diocese of Yakima. They received their first assignments in September of 1960. Both expressed their gratitude to God for the gift of life, of priesthood, and especially for the opportunity to minister to the Faithful of our diocese.

Father Vogel, 80, was ordained June 21, 1975 by Archbishop Raymond Hunthausen of Seattle, for service in the Society of Jesus. His concluding theological studies and postgraduate work were at Regis College in Toronto, Canada. After various assignments with the Jesuits, including pastoral work in Oregon, he came to the Yakima Diocese in 1997.

His service here has included assignments at St. Joseph Parish in Yakima and several parishes in the Lower Yakima Valley, most notably as pastor of Resurrection Parish in Zillah. He also was a chaplain for many years at Providence hospitals in Yakima and Toppenish. His present assignment is as parochial vicar for the parishes of St. Aloysius in Toppenish and St. Mary in White Swan.

Father Brzezowski, 60, pastor of Holy Spirit Parish in Kennewick, was ordained May 26, 2000, in Yakima by Bishop Carlos A. Sevilla, S.J., after graduating from Mundelein Seminary in Chicago. He is entering the final year of a six-year term as chairman of the Executive Committee of the C Priests. He has served in the parishes Paul Cathedral and Holy Family in Yakima, St. Andrew Parish in Ellensburg, Sacred Heart Parish in Prosser, St. Joseph Parish in Naches and St. Joseph Parish in Cowiche.

Fr. Brzezowski also has advanced studies in canon law at the Pontifical University of Salamanca in Spain, and serves in the Tribunal and Office of Canonical Services on a part-time basis.

Fr. Vogl, 64, an avid fisherman, also became a "fisher of men" on his ordination on May 26, 2000, by Bishop Sevilla. He attended Holy Heart Seminary in Hales Corner, Wisconsin. He serves at present as associate pastor of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Parish in Richland, with some service at St. Joseph in Kennewick.

Assignments in the Diocese of Yakima have included service in the parishes Blessed Sacrament in Grandview; Holy Spirit in Yakima; and St. Joseph in Waterville. He also served for a time in two parishes in the Diocese of Baker, Oregon.

May these priests be richly blessed in their many continuing years of service to the Diocese of Yakima.

They spent a preparatory day with us during our recent Yakima Priest Convocation and then returned to spend all day Saturday, October 11, with about 350 parish leaders at our Church Mission Congress. What was most notable is that about a third of our Congress attendees were youth themselves.

Statewide, as our three dioceses move towards a common middle school-age confirmation, our senior high school youth are ripe to be agents of evangelization by becoming peer ministers on their high school campuses. Parish leaders are exploring how to better accompany youth and focus both on catechesis and spiritual development. Indeed, without a profound relationship with Jesus Christ, catechesis becomes random information.

This is also why some of the movements are so very key here in the Diocese of Yakima. I'm grateful to Fr. Tomás Vidal and the leader team of parents and youth who make up Arco Iris. For those of you familiar with Cursillo, Arco Iris is built on that spiritual footprint. Only instead of separate Cursillo retreats for women and men, Arco Iris has youth retreats and parent retreats. Arco Iris itself means "Rainbow" in Spanish and refers to the famous Cursillo song "De Colores."

As one youth said with sharp humor some years ago, "When we go to school we act American. When we go home we act Mexican. And when our parents come to school we don't know how to act.." Not only Arco Iris – but great youth ministry in the Diocese of Yakima – builds the bridges among generations that anchor our youth in their rich Catholic heritage at the heart of so much of Mexican culture AND help the youth develop the English language and vocabulary to become missionaries here in the United States.

While I have yet to live an entire Arco Iris due to my schedule, I do try to make the closing Mass – the Clausura – where I can hear the testimonies of how lives are changed through friendship with Christ and friendship with each other. Such friendships, built on religious testimonies, are often what leads youth and their parents to a deeper exploration of their faith and a richer and more profound study of the church's catechetical teachings.

Youth are not simply the future. As we saw at our most recent Church Mission Congress, they are our current reality. And we are able to reach these first fruits of family life thanks to your first fruits you give through the Annual Catholic Appeal.

So my thanks to you and my thanks to the youth who are building up the one Body of Christ here across Central Washington.

With every best wish and blessing!

Yours in Christ,

The Seal of Confession Will Remain Intact

The Washington State Catholic Conference (WSCC) has announced good news regarding a successful lawsuit by Washington bishops. The bishops challenged a state law that would have required priests to violate the seal of confession if they were told in the confessional of any abuse committed.

The Washington State governor, attorney general and county prosecuting attorneys have agreed to a court order "finding that the state law violates our free exercise and have agreed not to force priests into the impossible choice between obeying God or complying with the law," the WSCC reported. A judge signed the final order on October 14, putting the permanent injunction in place.

The Catholic Church teaches that all said in the Sacrament of Confession is confidential. Priests and Church personnel are already required to report any suspected abuse learned of outside of confession, the WSCC stressed.

Days Are Approaching

Numerous Holy Days from the liturgical calendar are just around the November 1 is the Feast of All Saints. Because it falls on a Saturday this year, Mass attendance is not required. However, it's still a good idea to attend Mass honoring the many saints, known and unknown, who have gone before us. November 8 is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Since this feast falls on a Monday, Mass attendance is required for Catholics. In the Diocese of Yakima, permission has been granted to celebrate Mass instead on December 12, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. December 25, Christmas, is also a day on which Mass attendance is required, falling on a Thursday this year. A wonderful time to celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

In special circumstances, such as work responsibilities or caring for someone in need may dispense a person from the obligation of attending Mass on Holy Days.

Traveling Vocations Crucifixes

Courtesy of Serra Club of the Tri Cities, St. Joseph Parish has two Traveling Vocations Crucifixes—one at the 9:00 am Mass and one at the 1:00 pm Mass. Sign up to take a Crucifix (box includes the Crucifix, Rosary, and prayer cards) home for one week and pray for vocations—all vocations, but especially vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, and Vowed Religious Life. We pray that more men and women will hear God's call and say "yes". Remember, without priests, we would not have access to the Holy Eucharist and other Sacraments.
